We see that the Press sounds the alarm out Bramlette. The latter has fallen under rave suspicions. He has called for troops, and indeed proposed a draft. He has, it is said, suthor'zed Col. Wolford to raise a brigade, and that is sufficient to arouse enspicion The Press speaks lu the name of the Union men who elected Bramlette, and warns him that he is suspected. What is he going to do with the ten thousand troops? That is the point, "Blessed are the reacemskers," the good book says, and we, therefore, command the peace between these faithful soutinels, the Press & Co. and Bramlette & Co. We have not much faith in them; but we are nclined to believe they would cave the Union of these States It they knew how, but if the depressed apirit of the Governor could speak, It is ominous when such men as Wolford, and Jacob, and a long list of others we could name, are the suspected. It was not so in 1861; and these men have not changed. They have not progressed a step backward. It is the Government that has changed-not them. They are as mealons Union men as ever. But they have no faith in the new gospel that is preached, which they consider spurious; they they are the least. never had any. These men represent a class of zealous Union men of 1961, who would not stop at trifles whilst they believed the principle was right. They have not drifted off with the President after new lights, and are not satisfied with the new lights. These men have proved their zeal for the Union, shedding their blood for it. What have those done who suspect them? What is their record except in bulky worda? They assume to be blon men, and that all who do not defer to their judgment and that of their Aministration are rebels. Very modest gentlemen, to be sure! What Divine oracle has told them hat their measures will ever restore the Unlor? With the impudence of Satan, they assume that all who believe that their crud onceptions will never restore the Union or ebela. When they fail, as they will as certainly as the sun rises and sets, they will then lame other people. They are by their measnres making enemies of the Government dully; and God only knows what friends it will have after awhite. What has been the result? The effect has een just exactly the contrary to what was inended. Before the passage of that resolution our Government had never alguided to France that it was not our intention to interfere with the French operations in Mexico, Mr. Seward is constrained by the threatening stutude of France to declare explicitly that it is not would exclaim: "Save me from my friendel" the object of the Admisis ration to act upon this Congressional declaration; but, on the contrary, we will not interfers with Maximilian and the French designs. Here we are agala in the humiliating position of letting "I dare not wait upon I would." We have been blusteringly valiant in talk, and pusitlanimous in action. These are unnecessary ind'guities, which we might have avoided, but be true, what is the use of all this fighting and taxing? What is the use of all this suffering and sorrow? How far are these enepicious and denunciations to be carried? How far can they be carried without fatal results? How long will a man be a friend of the Government they be carried as an enemy?

It was but the other day, by the most extraordinary act ever concelved, our President authorized the kidnapping of a foreigner under the protection of our laws and national bonor, and sent him to Cuba. SPANISH OUTRAGE ON OUR COMMERCE -A w months since one of our cruners—the onigomery, chased a blockede runner to the onst of Havana. In making for the mearest ort, the latter ran aground. Captain Hunter, ut of molives of humanity, launched a boat and sent some of his men to assist her. He had no intention of molesting the crew, or taking the vessel, as he was fully aware that she was in Spinish waters. As soon as the blockade runners saw the boat approaching them they set fire to their vessel and escaped to the shore. to the shore.

The Press and its Administration are certifications of a very different character which has recent. of a very different character which has recently been perpetrated by a Spanish ship-of-war on one of our merchant vessels—the schooner and compensation on the schooner and compelled her to heave to the schooner and compelled her to heave to approaching without even going through the ceremony of hailing, the Spaniards being through the mainstill. She was then boarded, and her papers having been examined and found correct, she was allowed to proceed. Not a word of excuse or explanation was offered for these violent and unwarrantable proceedings. What is the duty of our proceedings and petition for the above of the right—that the right of the people of the several members of known influences and good understanding with Governor Robinson and Colonel Gilbert, to go with me convention—that it was a daugerous precedent—that it was a daugerous precedent—that it was called as a Dismocrate Convention—to give it a respectful hearing, and not condemn it without hearing what it had not condemn it without hearing and petition for the proceedings. What is the duty of our able proceedings. What is the duty of our Government under these circumstances? Clearly to insist on the dismissal of the Spanish Captain, whose conduct merits punishment, whilst that of Captain Hunter did not.

I sadduce this authority upon the point: Benet, in his standard work on military law and courts martial, on page 120, says: "True, the law full." law demands strict obedience to the 'lawful commands' of a superior. Unlawful or lilenmands' of a superior. Unlawful or lile-orders are, therefore, not obligatory, and gal orders are, therefore, not obligatory, and it is lawful, in a military sense, to disobey an unlawful command of a superlor." "Lawful commands" is quoted from the 9th Article of War, which enjoins obedience only to "awful commands." It is a misfortnne now deeply felt, that more of these men in military positions have not law-reading to discriminate between what is legal and illegal and character to obey the one and displays the and character to obey the one and disobey the other. Indeed, the all-destroying fact is that a set of ogree have got in possession of the invernment and have no appreciation of its historier and the rule and spirit and spatem or its just administration. The Bramlette arty are morally and legally responsible for this disfranchisement of the people at the last election. That party invited the military to intervene—Robinson's proclamation, unpre-cedented in character, was lasued as the foundation for military orders—Burnside, an ignorant man, in high position, with quarters at Clucionati at the time, did not know any cetter than to comply with the request. That carty have approved this monstrous act of iespotism by speech and by silence. Prentice, in his Journal, sold it was the fairest election ever held in Kentucky, or words of like import. Spanish Outrage on Our Commerce—A able law writer who sanctions the doctrine of the act, that a citizen can expatriate himself without leaving the State or country of his residence. I belive the Court of Appeals has residence. I belive the Court of Appeals has decided it as conflicting with the provision in the State Constitution fixing suffrage, and therefore void, in a case that recently went up from the Scott Circuit Court. Col. Gilbert's suppression of the convention at Frankfort on the 224 February (a day sacred to liberty), 1868, was I believe the first overt act of our protecters to rob us of our liberty. When I heard in the house that Gilbert had thrown a regiment of Infactry with muskets chotted and beyonets fixed around the convention hall, I fest the keenest anguleh, and the conviction went home to every intelligent mind that the liberties of the citizen were attacked in their capital. Here was a Colonel from In their capital. Here was a Colonel from Ohio assuming guardianship of the people— second and press—ordering them home. Courthouse, in Louisville, on the night of the 24th of May, reminded him that he owed some explanation to the people of Kentucky for requising to accept the proposition mads by the Kentucky Congressmen, for only one convention to be held in Kentucky on the 15th of June, embracing all the people opposed to the Administration, and send delegates to Chicago. We will hold that convention on the 15th of June, and it will represent three-fourths of the people of the State. arguments to resist by an editor, to say noth-ing of running "the machine" on the Nish-ville road. Mr. Guthrio says "the committee felt that they had no authority to consult those who had left the platform of 1863." This is a piece of special pleading, and an evasive effort to raise an immaterial issue. It matters not how the Democrats and Conservatives got separated. That was not the issue raises by the Congressmen; but to unite them in one convention on the 15th of June. As I understand, our Congressmen who made the proposition have not left the platform of March 18, 1863. I think they would like to, il they knew how to get "off the train" without hurting somebody. The Democratic party of Kentucky have never stood on that platform-never. The Democratic n that platform—never. The Diatform is armistice—negotiation-nise—prace—the Constitution. mise—prace—the Constitution. Governor Wickliffe, who is to day Governor of Ken tneky, lu contemplation of law and right, and those who ran on the same ticket with him, and his supporters and friends, did not stand on that miserable thing of 1863, which tled the border States and all that was worth preserving to the car of the Abolition jugger-naut. The men most instrumental in making that platform—Smith, Flunell, Randall, Barnam—the Goodloes, the Speeds, Hodges, Anderson and others—have all gone into the hundred-fold crime of Abolition. The great mass of the Democracy and old Whigs have united their voices, influence, lives, fortunes and sacred honors, appealing to all brave and generons—minded men to join them in making one led the border States and all that was worth one-minded men to join them in making one more determined struggle to restore good gov-ernment, constitutional liberty, concord, trater-nity, Union—that pence and harmony of the States, which is the soul of the Union. Peace the Union lies bleeding through the gaping wounds of her most gallant sons—ay "writhe and dies smid its (protessional) worshippers." I do not see that Mr. Guthrie has accomplished and not see that Mr. Guthrie has accomplished anything good by his platform of 'B3, unless its being a hot-bed in which the young ideas of abolition are taught how to shoot fast to maturity, is a good. We told him last year his party would demoralize and go off into radicallem—one third, perhaps one-half, did 20. Now he and Prentice have put up the and go. Now he and Prentice have put up the same platform. Do they want the balance to go off on the same road? I hope not. People of the State. Mr. Guthrie, Preu Pope & Co. thought by refusing to go it they could dragoon the people into a support, and thus secure a new for power and office and profit-job work. In this they are reckiple without their host—the people, who inderse the 15th of June Couvention.

The state of the state war as waged is not only intended to overthrow all political, commercial and social intercourse with the South, but to destroy and wipe them ont as a people from the face of the earth forever—who can see that all parties heretofore existing have disappeared, save one, before the advancing at the Abolition party, leaving their the face of the earth forever—who can see that all parties heretofore existing have disappeared, save one, before the advancing strides of the Abolition party, leaving their votaries to seek new affiliations and connections in the political jousts and tournaments of the time. Here stands the Democracy well release the political points and tournaments of the time. polsed upon the "Rock" of the Constitution, pledging to sustain its supremacy "with life and limb and terrene honor"—with State rights limb and terrene honor"—with State rights—personal security and protection to private property—respect to State laws and State institutions—free speech—free press—free religion—and free suffrage—with no doubtin powers to be exercised by Congress inscribed upon its old battle-flag, it throws its gage of battle at the feet of the enemies of law and liberty and defiantly bids them to the contest. That there should be any halting or doubting as to the calling of this Convention with any min of sense, fight to-day and flicker to morrow—to organize the party and run candidates in 1863—to be rudely seconted from the polls, and the next year (1864) falter, scatter and va-"Hon. row—to organize the party and run candidates in 1863—to be rudely aconted from the polis, and the next year (1864) falter, seatter and vagrandize as camp-followers to the party who disfranchised us last year. Never! Never! Are Bramlette, Prentice, Guthrle, Robinson, Pope and Huston the exponents of the principles of the Democratic party? They may be when they come to those principles and the political organization outside of and in conflict with the doctrines, maxims, antecedents, traditions and men of the Democracy—by Indirection to assume possession and drive that party from its own house, treating them as hewers of wood and drawers of water, they fail—signally fall. It is the old fabie of the Ass in the Lion's skiu nearly dramatised. Mr. Guthrie appears now as he did last year in the very undidate for the Seuate before a Legislature, then to be elected by a party having control of the military arm, of throwing off the party with which he had acted up to the Presidential canvass of 1860 in favor of the party who elected the Legislature which retains the power of electing Senator at its next session. Now Mr. Guthrie made Bramlette Governor last year, or rather made bim candidate, and Burnside ed the Legislature which retains the power of electing Senator at its next session. Now Mr. Guthrie made Bramlette Governor last year, or rather made him candidate, and Buraside made him Governor—a character God Almighty never thought of making out of him, and yet Mr. Bramlette was the lion in Mr. Guthrie's path for the Senate last winter at Frankfort. Now Mr. Guthrie's and Prentice's convention has named Bramlette for candidate as Vice President on the ticket with Mc. Ciellan. Now Mr. Bramlette by Mr. Guthrie was placed in a position where Gen. Buraside made him Governor. If he is not made Vice President by the Chicago National Democratic Convention, aided by Gen. McClellan, he should not get in Mr. Guthrie's way any more for the Senate. If he does exhibit such rank ingratitude the second time, and he is sure not to be nominated at Chicago, then some old live-long Democrat like Geo. D. Prentice or James F. Robinson will hold Mr. Bramlette responsible, perhaps. I am sure none of Mr. Guthrie's new political friends will resent such shabby treatment coming from the Governor, aince they say Mr. Guthrie was so unappreciative at the last Presidential election as not to vote at all when there were three tickets in the field, all of which were preferred by Democratic friend Geo. D. Prentice, and will appear in the Louisville Jonnal, the old organ of the Democracy. But it shall be my last if he drops the word (Democratic) from his paper after the nominations are made at Chicago, se he did last year, and as he and Mr. Guthrie did this year in their cull for the 25th of May Convention. I asked as he and Mr. Guthrie did this year in their call for the 25th of May Convention. I asked a friend of mine for an explanation of this, who said Mr. Guthrie would not put it in because the Charleston Convention would not put him into the White House, and Prentice left it cut of the Journal "by mistake of the printer."

(From the London Times of the 18th.) Addison gives a humorous account of a quire whom he met by chance in a y ride, and who maintained, over a bowl cb, to which he was evidently addicted, country ride, and who maintained, over a bowl of punch, to which he was evidently addicted, that England would do very weil it it would content itself with its own productions and not depend upon foreigners. Addison reminded him, to his great discomfiture, that of the favorite drink he was enjoying the water was the only constituent part of English prowas the only constituent part of English pro-duction, and that the brandy, the lemon, the spice sud the engar were all foreigners. The American ladies, and still more, the American gentlemen, will, we imagine, be in very much the same predicament as the squire. We shall walt with some anxiety to see the sequel of all we are quite certain that merchants may con-tinue to import cigars, liquors and wines with-out the slightest alteration. An American without his cigar is about as possible a metemorphesis as an Ethiopian with a white skin; and the probability of an thandoment of imported wines may be adject of from the fact that in his late defeat Judged of from the fact that in his late defeat Gen. Banke "lost his baggage and champague."

When Generals in a difficult march over a hostile country find champagne a necessary addition to their baggage, the chance of a New York merchant abandoniag imported winea must be infinitesimal. It is to be feared the habits of the ladies will in the same way prove too strong for them. American taste will be to that of Paris as "Jersey light-ning" to corpuse, and will stand the same ning" to cognac, and will stand the same chance against it. If it were possible, though, one would be glad to see the experiment well tried for the sake of its very absurdity. There is something like a burlesque in the notion of the principal ladies of the smartest nation under the sun carrying ont in broad daylight the muddle-headed facey of a country equire

What can be said of a people where the wives of ex-Presidents, Vice Presidents, Sentors and Representatives can seriously hold a large meeting in the capital city, in the very crisis of the war, and act out this extravagant piece of half-manuart hombus? What crisis of the war, and act out this extravagant piece of half-mad half-snart bombast? What can we expect from the men whose vives, daughters and mothers can find no other public exercise of feminine qualities than this azarre and trickey patriotism? If it were possible to forget the terrible sacrifice of human life that is involved in the struggle, and the great issues to history which hang upon its result, one would be disposed to treat the whole scene as one grand pantomime, where the only object is to outface absurdity with absurdity, and we should walt with the easy excitement of spectators, the articipated and intended crash.

Lee Crosses the Chickahominy. Late from General Sherman's Army. The Battle of New Hope Church. Gen. Butler's Battle at Hatcher's. His Losses Said to be Very Heavy, Late Foreign News by the Virginia. General R. S. Granger Relieved.

NEW YORK, June 4. A long letter from Fremont, accepting the nomination for the Presidency, concludes as follows:

If the Republican convention at Bultimote will nominal any man whose past life justifies well-grounded confidence in his fidelity to our cardinal principles, there is no reason why there should be any division among the really patriotic men of our country. To any such I shall be most happy to give a corcial and happy support. My own decided preference is to aid in this way, and not be myself a candidate. But If Mr. L'neoin be renominated—as I believe it would be fatal to the country to Indorse a policy and renew a renominated—as I believe it would be state to the country to ludorse a policy and renew a power which has cost us the lives of thou-sands of men, and needlessly put the country on the road to bankraptcy—there will be no alternative but to organize against him every clement of conscientious opposition, with a view to prevent such a misfortune as his se-lection.

On this contingency I accept the nomination at Cleveland, and in taking this preliminary step have resigned my commission in the army. This was a sacrifice that gave pain, but I had for a long time truitlessly endeavored to obtain service. I make this sacrifice now only to regain liberty of speech, and leave posting in the way discharging to any atmost nothing in the way—discharging to my utmost ability the task you have set before me. With earnest and sincere thanks for your expressions of confidence and regard, and tor the many honorable terms in which you acquaint me with the action of the committee, I am, gentiemen, Very respectfully and trnly yours,

J. C. FREMONT. John Cochrane also has written a letter ac cepting the nomination for Vice President. New York, June 4

The Tribme's special from Headquarters Army of the Potomac, of Thursday, June 2, says the successful operations of the Fifth corps on Monday were followed up by the advance of the Second corps Thursday morning, which compelled the enemy to withdraw from their line on the Tatopatony. They have retreated to the south side of the Chickatoming, with the exception of their line to retard our advance. Our cavalry entered Mcchanicsville last evening, after acouting about the old batthe field of Chickshominy. Grant still pushes his left fink successfully, and his strategy baffles the maneuvers of the enemy, having offered them battle on the Totopatomy, with his right wing resting on the Virginia Central railroad, and having compelled the enemy to withdraw across the Chickshominy.

He has thrown his left wing with his renal

He has thrown his left wing with his usual celerity away to the east of Richmond, and is now threatening the crossing of the Chickahominy at Bottom's bridge. This is now the point of Interest. Baldy Smith arrived from the White House just in time to get in the ac operate with our left nank. Last night and all day firing in that direction indi-cated that a severe battle has been raging. Our new base to now completely established New York, June 6.

The Herald's correspondent with Sherman details the battle of New Hope Church, on the 28th ult. About three P M. the enemy gave signs of activity, and soon moved a heavy body signs of activity, and soon moved a heavy body en mass from the wood before McPherson's army and Harrison's division. They marched boldly up the hill, exposed to a severe artillery fire. When they had reached less than one hundred yards of the breastworks, our lafattry poured upon this mass a terrible volley. The column staggered, but railied, fired, and made efforts to suprescend closure. Our troops made efforts to approach closer. Our troops now became hotly engaged, and though the rebels greatly outnumbered us, they were held at bay. Our artillery secured a better posi-tion, and with shrapnel and shell soon sent the rehei mass rushing for the protection of a ravine and wood near by. Another attack was soon made upon another portion of McPherson's line, commanded by General Osterhaus. Though made with even more impetuosity, it met the same fate. A lull ensued; but the rebels were brought up for a third attack still against McPherson and Sweeney's division of the Sixteenth corps. They first presented the same bold front, but did not last as long, as they were discouraged, and were sent back with serious loss.

From Drisoners we learned that the rebels. and were sent back with serious loss.

From prisoners we learned that the rebels consisted of five divisions of the flower of Johnston's army, commanded by Cheatham, Claiborne, and Bates.

From hydrod will sower our total losses of Five hundred will cover our total losses of Five hundred will cover our total losses of the day.

The rebels huried five divisions against three of ours.

The Herald's correspondent with Butler says of the battle at Hatcher's on Thursday:
At 3 A. M the rebels opened with artillery, and massing in a body dashed on our picket line, and captured a number of the Third New Hampshire. We then drove the rebels back, capturing twenty-five prisoners. Two other smaller attacks were mide, but none of them succeeded in their object—breaking through our lines. Our losses are heavy, but those of the rebels are much heavier. We took between sixty and seventy prisoners.

New York, June 6. New York, June 6.

The Tribune's correspondent near Coal Harbor, writing on the 23, says the fourth grand flink movement is now in progress, end, judging from yesterday's movement, will prove a success. The battle yesterday was acvere, and resulted in our taking 650 prisoners and the enemy's principal works. At tix a M. the whole line moved forward. A narrow belt of woods was passed, and on reaching an open plowed field the enemy's position was in full view. Picket's division immediately opened with a heavy fire of artillery and musopen plowed field the enemy's position was in full view. Picket's division immediately opened with a heavy fire of artillery and mus-ketry; but our men nobly advanced through the deadly storm, and with the bayonet drove the enemy pell inell from their earthworks, the enemy pell-inell from their earthworks which they held during the night against repeated assaults.

This feat elicted from Meade his thanks.
Smith's junction with Wright, this correspondent says, was so opportune that it proves the fact that the Army of the Potomse is under the subdenced mixed. der the guidance of minds possessed of master ly ability. Beautegard's torce, with a part of Hill's and Longstreet's, engaged in the battle of yesterday. Our total loss amounted to 1,800. SANDY HOOK, June 6.
